Design Miami/Basel returns to the Herzog & de Meuron-designed fairgrounds for its 13th edition, presenting its traditional mix of new creative projects, iconic designs from the past and conceptual interpretations of the genre. With 43 international galleries presenting work from names of modern and contemporary design, as well as ten special Curio presentations and more large-scale installations, this edition once again offers a magnificent celebration of culture and commerce. Here are our highlights to look out for.

'A New Layer Taiwan', presented by Spazio Nobile Gallery

An initiative by the National Taiwanese Craft Research and Development Institute, in collaboration with Belgian gallery Spazio Nobile, 'A New Layer Taiwan' is an ongoing project fostering creative relations between Taiwanese craftsmen and international designers. Curator Lise Coirier enlisted seven designers and invited them to Taiwan to collaborate with local craftsmen and workshops. The results include porcelain pieces by Anton Alvarez and BCXSY, bamboo furniture by Sebastian Herkner (pictured) and Jin Kuramoto, and clay objects by Julie Richoz and Wonmin Park. www.spazionobile.com
